

Association of European Businesses

Alexey Zhikharev

Director at Russian Renewable Energy
Development Association
Partner, VYGON Consulting

Education

Graduate of the International Economic Relations Department of the Financial Academy under the Government of the Russian Federation, holds Ph. D. in Economics.

Professional Experience

Alexey has been working in the electricity sector since 2003.

He is a partner at advisory company VYGON Consulting and is responsible for the power sector practice.

2011 - 2016: worked at the International Finance Corporation (IFC), the World Bank group, where occupied a position of the Deputy Head of Russia Renewable Energy Program and head of investors and government relations.

2008 - 2010: worked at advisory company Mercados EMI, responsible for coordination and expert support of power sector projects.

2003 - 2008: worked at RAO UES, of Russia, at the Market and Corporate Strategy department.