Dentons' German practice holds networking event for managers of German companies

Moscow, in February – Dentons' German Desk in Russia conducted a networking and roundtable discussion event aimed at the top management of German companies in Russia and focused on the role and responsibility of the media in times of international economic and political conflicts.

Attendees discussed the influence and responsibility of the media in times of crisis.

Speaking at the event were Florian Willerhausen, international chief reporter for German business weekly Wirtschaftswoche, and Horst Kläuser, chief reporter for German public-broadcaster WDR (Westdeutscher Rundfunk). The renowned journalists answered questions on professional ethics and standards, topic selection criteria, their personal private and professional experience in Russia and Ukraine, and shared their opinions on the outlook for relations between Russia and Germany.

Florian Schneider, Dentons Moscow Managing Partner, and Alex Stolarsky, Dentons Moscow Of Counsel, moderated the event.

Selgros Cash & Carry generously supported the evening with selected wines.
