

MOSCOW INTERNATIONAL FINANCIAL FORUM TO DISCUSS DEOFFSHORIZATION AND CFC LAWS

VEGAS LEX Tax practice associate Nikolai Rudomanov has discussed some aspects of international tax information exchange at the Moscow International Financial Forum 2015.

On November 11, 2015, VEGAS LEX Tax practice associate Nikolai Rudomanov spoke at the Fifth Moscow International Financial Forum 2015*. His presentation, An alternative tax authorities' approach to collecting information on foreign entities, was part of the conference section devoted to deoffshorization.

The expert discussed international exchange of tax information and elaborated on the practical aspects of using the Orbis database, which contains organized data on public and private companies around the world.

The participants also discussed investment opportunities for institutional and private investors, gave an overview of the Russian M&A market, and talked about investment opportunities in Asia, Family Office benefits and other issues.

For more information on VEGAS LEX's tax law services, please go here.