

Alfredo José Assumpção

Alfredo is an Economist, post-graduated in Human Resources Development at Fundação Getúlio Vargas. He holds a Masters of Arts in Human Resources Management from Pacific Western University. With a long career in HR, Alfredo was the manager and director of this area at Chase Manhattan, Reynolds Tobacco, International Paint and Kibon (General Foods).

In 1995 he founded Fesa operating in Brazil with three offices, São Paulo, Rio de Janeiro and Curitiba, with 90 professionals, partners, consultants, researchers and other employees.

He is a writer and poet, having 4 published poetry books, 4 business orientated books and 1 romance. He is also a musician and composer; having 5 recorded CDs.

On April 22, 2008, he was nominated by Business Week as one of the most influential headhunters of the planet. Soon after, on September 12th, 2008, he received the Commendation President Juscelino Kubitschek, granted by the Government of Minas Gerais, recognizing the services of exceptional importance to society that the author has achieved.