

ALRUD announces the appointment of new Partner

We are pleased to announce that effective September 1, 2025

Sergey Artemiev has been appointed a Partner at ALRUD's Tax practice

This strengthens ALRUD's Tax Practice team with a second Partner. Sergey Artemiev will make an even greater contribution to the firm's development and strengthen ALRUD's position in the fields of tax law and comprehensive structuring.

Sergey's appointment as Partner is the natural progression of his career in the firm. Sergey joined the ALRUD team in 2015, and over the past 10 years, has distinguished himself as a reliable professional and an expert with unique experience. Sergey has been involved in dozens of the firm's most complex and comprehensive projects involving the tax structuring of transactions and of both business and personal models of asset ownership and management, both in Russia and internationally, as well as projects involving the restructuring of intra-group debts, improving the efficiency of business processes, and tax planning.

Sergey is a practicing lawyer, member of the International Bar Association (IBA) and the International Association of Young Lawyers (AIJA), and a member of the tax committees of international business associations, including the Association of European Businesses (AEB) and the American Chamber of Commerce in Russia (AmCham Russia). Sergey's professional experience includes working in the tax dispute resolution group of one of the Big 4 consulting firms as well as working on complex projects in the areas of foreign economic activity, currency regulation, countersanctions, and tax compliance.

Sergey is recommended as a top-tier specialist in leading Russian rankings, Kommersant and Pravo-300, and in international rankings – the Legal 500 EMEA and Best Lawyers.
