SEAMLESS Legal promotes Yulia Smourova to Counsel

31 January 2023 – SEAMLESS Legal is glad to announce the promotion of Yulia Smourova to Tax Counsel.

Yulia has been advising clients for over 15 years on a variety of tax law issues, including financing and investment deals, M&A and real estate transactions, company restructurings, currency control and regulation. She also has significant experience in tax disputes, where she represents corporate and private clients.

Besides, Yulia has been successfully developing the private clients practice, advising HNW individuals on structuring private investment projects, preparing and filing tax returns, CFC and foreign accounts reporting. Driven by her active engagement, the practice has received accolades from the leading rankings Forbes Club, Pravo.ru-300 and the special Pravo.ru study of the private client advisory market in 2022.

Prior to joining SEAMLESS Legal in 2006, Yulia gained professional experience at the Federal Tax Service of Russia.

“Over the past few years, we have been actively developing our tax team, – Hayk Safaryan, tax partner at SEAMLESS Legal. – Yulia is a well-known expert, thanks to her exceptional skills and experience, we will continue to develop this important sector for us, providing clients with comprehensive legal, tax, currency control and accounting support for projects of any complexity.”
