

CMS has launched a free mobile application that provides guidance for competition-law dawn raids in 27 countries

Moscow, 8 February 2019 – CMS has launched a free mobile application that provides guidance for competition-law dawn raids in 27 countries.

Dawn raids are becoming more common these days, with authorities imposing huge fines, inspectors appearing simultaneously at different locations or subsidiaries in several countries, at different companies (for example, competitors, customers or suppliers) and even at the private homes of managers and other employees.

With the CMS Dawn Raid Assistant, CMS ensures that clients can benefit from real-time dawn raid assistance via their smartphone in 27 countries where CMS operates.

By downloading the app, clients get access to the following features:

- Emergency button: direct call or email to the selected jurisdiction's local CMS Dawn Raid Team and first guidance on how to react to the situation.
- Instructions: dawn raid checklists for compliance or legal teams and receptionists, tailored to the selected jurisdiction.
- CMS lawyers: a list of local CMS competition dawn raid lawyers, complete with contact information.

The premium version of the app provides access to the following additional features:

- Guidelines for 27 countries on obligations and rights during a dawn raid by the national competition authority or the European Commission, available in English and the respective local language.

Access to the basic version of the app is available to all. Clients can request access to the premium version within the app.

The countries covered by the app includes Albania, Austria, Belgium, Bosnia and Herzegovina, Bulgaria, Croatia, Czech Republic, France, Germany, Hungary, Italy, Luxembourg, Macedonia, Montenegro, The Netherlands, Poland, Portugal, Romania, Russia, Serbia, Slovakia, Slovenia, Spain, Switzerland, Turkey, United Kingdom, Ukraine.
