BEITEN BURKHARDT Organises the Charity Event "Nitochka Dobra"

Moscow, 12 January 2015 – International law firm BEITEN BURKHARDT organized the charity event "Nitochka Dobra" [Thread of Good], which took place on 18 December 2014 at the Kolomna Municipal Social Rehabilitation Center for Minors. As part of the event the children presented a theatrical show that they had themselves prepared.

During the previous month the kids had rehearsed the inspirational New Year show Thread of Good with an actress of the Kolomna People's Theater. Costumes and decorations were purchased, while the children enthusiastically learned their roles, dances and verses. In turn, the organizers spent this time acquiring the New Year presents that the children had requested in their letters to Grandfather Frost.

When the special day 18 December came, the children performed the show Thread of Good. Actors from the theater also took part. The children got into character with great pleasure and gave 100% on stage. The show was wonderful: it was both very positive and at the same time indicative of the New Year. This was followed by a soap bubble extravaganza organized by a magic fairy for the kids. And then the moment came, the moment that the children had been eagerly awaiting – Grandfather Frost made his entrance and handed out to each child the present he or she had been dreaming of.

The municipal social rehabilitation centre for minors in Kolomna serves to socially support families and children who are faced with hardships and difficult personal circumstances. The centre provides a stationary facility for orphans aged three to eighteen years and also addresses the issue of how children can be provided with safe and comfortable living conditions especially during the phase when the course is set for their future life or which they need for recovery and education.
