

Maxim Gennadievich Reshetnikov (Максим Геннадьевич Решетников)

Born 11 July 1979 in Perm.

2000: Graduated from Perm State University with a degree in Mathematical Economics.

2002: Received a degree in Linguistics and Translation.

2000–2005: Head of the Budget Receipts and Planning Department, Head of the Regional Finance and Investment Department, and Deputy Head of the Main Directorate for Economics at the Perm Regional Administration.

2005–2007: First Deputy Chairman of the Perm Region Planning Department and First Deputy Director of the Perm Territory Governor's Administration.

2007–2009: Deputy Director of the Inter-Budgetary Relations Department and Director of the Monitoring and Performance Evaluation Department for Government Bodies of the Federal Subjects of the Russian Federation under the Ministry of Regional Development of Russia.

2009: Director of the Perm Territory Governor's Administration.

2009–2010: Director of the Department of State Governance, Regional Development and Local Government of the Government of the Russian Federation.

2010–2011: First Deputy Director of the Moscow Mayor's Office and the Moscow Government.

2012–2017: Minister of the Moscow Government and Head of the Department for Economic Policy and Development.

2017–January 2020: Governor of the Perm Territory.

21 January 2020: Appointed Minister of Economic Development of the Russian Federation by Presidential Executive Order.

Awarded a Presidential Certificate of Acknowledgment and a Government Certificate of Honour.

Has a PhD in Economics.

Married, with a son and two daughters.