

LABOUR LAW ISSUES: ADVICE OF EXPERIENCED LAWYERS

Monday, April 25, 2011

13:00 - 16:30 (registration starts from 12:30)

Marriott Tverskaya Hotel

1-st Tverskaya-Yamskaya, 34, Moscow

Business meeting

Programme

Labour law issues: advice of experienced lawyers.

Moderator – Olga Bantsekina, Chair of the AEB HR committee, Chief representative, Coleman Services

13:00 – 14:30

Julia Borozdna, Head of Employment and Migration Law Practice, Pepeliaev Group

Employer trade secrets and intellectual property rights for the objects developed by employees. How an employer can create an efficient legal protection. What is trade (commercial) secret of an employer? How the employee can be disciplined or dismissed for breaching the trade secret regime. How the employers can protect their intellectual property rights and what precautions should be taken. Is salary sufficient remuneration for creation of IP objects? Companies' risks. Litigation practice

Questions and Answers

14:30 – 15:00 Coffee

15:00 – 16:30

Alexander Karpukhin, Head of Labour Law Practice, Dewey & LeBoeuf

Trade Unions: independent player, partner or tool?

What is a trade union. How, when and why employees set up trade unions. Legal strategies of cooperation. General consequences. Practical recommendations to the employer. Current litigation practice.

Questions and answers

Working language is Russian, translation is provided upon preliminary request