

VEGAS LEX BECOMES OFFICIAL LEGAL PARTNER OF A ROUNDTABLE AT MIPIM 2017 PROPERTY FAIR

On March 14, 2017, VEGAS LEX will provide support for a roundtable, The new reality of development: How the Russian RE market responds to current challenges?, organized by the Kommersant Publishing House and the Moscow Government.

From March 14 to 17, 2017, Cannes will host the annual property fair, MIPIM 2017.

VEGAS LEX is a legal partner of the conference, The new reality of development: How the Russian RE market responds to current challenges? Partner, Head of Real Estate, Land & Construction practice Igor Chumachenko will speak at the event.

The experts will summarize the past and discuss how development companies will change in the future, how to develop the urban space in Moscow, what will be the new model of real estate, who dictates the policy of real estate market, the latest trends and technologies used in modern urban planning, and other issues.

In 2017, MIPIM is expected to convene around 18 000 active professionals from more than 80 countries, such as Germany, Poland, UK, Russia, as well as representatives from the Middle East, Egypt, South Korea and Turkey. More than 4,000 international investors will have a chance to explore the possibilities, and to evaluate the potential of development projects submitted by 1,700 participating companies*.

***

MIPIM is the leading European property investment fair, which annually gathers influential players of various international property market segments, including office and residential construction, trade, medicine, sport, logistics and industry. This event offers a unique access to a large number of construction projects and funding sources worldwide.

* Source: <http://travel4business.ru/exhibition/157>.

For more information on VEGAS LEX's activities in the property, construction and land relations sphere, please click here.