The Russian team of Eversheds Sutherland announces the launch of its own brand BIRCH LEGAL

BIRCH LEGAL will continue to operate in the Russian market as an exclusive relationship firm for Eversheds Sutherland. It will keep all of its international connections and interaction with foreign colleagues on all current as well as new projects. The entire team is continuing its work in their Moscow and St Petersburg offices without any interruption.

In organizational terms, the firm was and still is a Russian limited liability company which allows to continue working without any transition period. All the credentials have been kept, and only the company's name has changed.

The new brand completely reflects both the firmness and commitment to the quality of service and deadlines as well as the flexibility which is manifested in the individual approach to each project and each client.

BIRCH LEGAL – is a cohesive team of highly qualified specialists with all the resources necessary to provide professional legal support and ensure international quality in all matters. In 25 years in the market, the main objective of the firm has been the development and protection of its clients' business, and BIRCH LEGAL has continued to advance in this chosen direction.
