Evening dress code.

"Gans und Tanz" is one of the major Moscow charity events. Thanks to our guests and sponsors we managed to raise more than 800 thousand rubles in 2012. This money was spent on the capacity increase of electric supply and other urgently needed infrastructural adjustments in the Rogatschovo orphanage (Moscow region).

This year's Gans und Tanz comes under the motto Hospice. We believe that projects dealing with Hospices are still underdeveloped in Moscow. Despite the satisfying evening that we will have, we would like to use this opportunity to raise money for those who still have only a little time left to live, and awareness of their situation in Russia. The funds we raise will therefore be spent on making those final days more pleasant.
