Tablogix has started managing warehouse operations of Michelin

One of the leaders of the tire market, Michelin has chosen Tablogix for managing operations of logistics center in Russia. The warehouse is located on the territory of Michelin industrial site in Davydovo (Moscow region), the warehouse area is 61 000 sq.m. Tires from this warehouse are shipped to points of sale in Russia and the CIS, as well as for export. Tablogix started work on August 1.

Own logistics center allowed Michelin to optimize logistics processes in Russia and the CIS, reducing storage costs and delivery time. The company develops an innovative approach in logistics to provide the best service and quality for its customers.

Denis Savelyev, Tablogix Sales Director said: "It is strategically important for us to expand cooperation with world industrial leaders. We are happy to provide logistics support to our new partner and we expect that our collaboration will allow both companies to strengthen positions in the market".

Tablogix is known in Russia as one of the first logistics company who began to provide warehouse services for the automotive aftermarket according to international quality standards. Today, Tablogix manages the central part distribution centers of the largest automotive companies.
