

EPAM Law advised Agrostroy LLC on the sale of a land plot in New Moscow

EPAM Law advised Agrostroy LLC, a real estate developer, on the sale of a land plot of more than 45 hectares in New Moscow to one of Russia's major developers.

The firm's lawyers provided comprehensive legal support for the complex multi-party transaction, including assistance with negotiations and the preparation of transaction documents.

The project was handled by a cross-practice team from the firm's Real Estate and Construction, M&A, and Corporate Law practices, led by Ekaterina Verle, Partner and Head of the Real Estate Practice.

The team included Counsel Anna Rodygina, Senior Associate Anastasia Karepova, Associates Sabina Idrisova and Anastasia Norkina, and Junior Associate Anna Sherbakova.
