Dear clients and partners,

The world is getting more open and dynamic, and this affects remote work and interaction with staff in different countries. How can companies help employees in their relocation, adjust work processes, increase loyalty and efficiency and maintain business relationships?

On September 28, at the conference "Global Mobility Evolution 2023: Prospects and approaches to relocation", we propose to discuss what challenges we faced in 2023, how we met them, and how the relocation of personnel around the world is happening now. Let's observe the trends, directions and topical issues that expatriates face in a new country, in particular the taxation aspect of remote work. We will also share the latest news for the HQS and the changes that need to be taken into account when planning business and personal trips.

Topics and speakers of our conference:

◆ Relocation of highly qualified specialists in 2023: trends, forecasts, opportunities

Speaker: Marina Semenova, Managing Partner, Intermark Relocation

◆ Main changes in the immigration programs of European countries: the most popular and attractive programs and directions

Speaker: Irina Karaseva, International Relocations Coordinator, Intermark Relocation

◆ Remote work: what to consider when accepting and parting with employees

Speaker: Alexandra Rybakova, Deputy Legal & Compliance Director, Manpower

◆ Tax aspect of relocation. What remote employees should know

Speakers Andrey Ionov, Head of the Legal Department, Intermark Relocation, Tatiana Privalova, Legal Consultant, Intermark Relocation

◆ Immigration news for HQS: work and travel

Speaker: Olga Makeshina, Head of Immigration Department, Intermark Relocation
