

JUDICIAL PRACTICE ON CORPORATE ISSUES: RECENT DECISIONS AND RELEVANT PRECEDENTS

On 03 February 2016, the Senior Associate of Corporate Practice at VEGAS LEX Alexander Garmaev presented an overview of judicial practice on corporate disputes at a seminar hosted by the magazine Aktsionernoye Obshchestvo (Joint Stock Company).

On 03 February 2016, Senior Associate of Corporate Practice at the VEGAS LEX Law Firm Alexander Garmaev spoke at the seminar entitled “Key Corporate Procedures”, organized by the magazine Aktsionernoye Obshchestvo (Joint Stock Company).

Alexander Garmaev’s lecture was devoted to the review of judicial practice on corporate disputes. The expert spoke in detail about the basic principles governing the recovery of damages from company directors, he explained the concept of affiliated persons, addressed issues that arise in shareholder agreements, showing examples of positive judgments, discussed the practice of challenging golden parachutes and the use of such phenomenon as piercing the corporate veil.*

Participants also discussed the latest innovations in corporate law, information disclosure issues, tax and financial aspects of corporate governance, various issues in antimonopoly legislation when it comes to corporate legal relations, and so forth.

***

\ Spreading a debtor's liability to creditors to the persons that control the debtor.*

Read more about the services VEGAS LEX offers in the corporate rights sphere here.