

VEGAS LEX discusses VED pricing at RBC business breakfast

On August 29, 2017, VEGAS LEX Manager of Life sciences projects Maria Borzova moderated the session, Additional costs of pharmaceutical producers, held as part of the Vital and Essential Drugs (VED) price regulation business breakfast sponsored by RBC media holding and involving the Russian Ministry of Healthcare.

On August 29, 2017, RBC media holding organized a business breakfast in Moscow on Regulatory issues concerning VED list for government officials, pharmaceutical market leaders and the industry media. Healthcare Ministry officials took part in the event.

Maria Borzova, VEGAS LEX's Manager of Life sciences projects, moderated the session, Additional costs of pharmaceutical producers. The participating officials included Director of the Medication Support Department of Russia's Health Ministry Yelena Maksimkina, Head of the Federal Service for Supervision of Healthcare Mikhail Murashko, and experts from Russian and foreign pharmaceutical companies.

During the session, experts discussed a number of issues related to pricing and potential approaches to price regulation, as well as price dynamics and inclusion of products in the VED list. They also touched upon the drug labeling project.

For more information on VEGAS LEX's services for the pharmaceutical industry, please click here.