

Lúcio Vinhas de Souza is the official responsible for Russia and Belarus at the Directorate-General for Economic and Financial Affairs (DG-ECFIN) of the European Commission since 2005.

Dr. Vinhas de Souza is a Portuguese citizen. Born in the Federal Republic of Brazil in 1966, he has a B.A. and a M.Sc. degree in Economics by the FE/UNL in Lisbon, Portugal, and a Ph.D. in Economics by the Erasmus University in Rotterdam, the Netherlands.

Dr. Vinhas de Souza formerly held the position of Economist at the United Nations Secretariat, at the Economic Commission for Latin America and the Caribbean (ECLAC). He has also held positions as a Senior Economist and Head of Research Area at the renowned Kiel Institute for World Economics (IfW) in Kiel, Germany, as a Fellow at the ECARES-Free University of Brussels, as a Visiting Researcher at the Central Banks of Estonia and Germany, and authored, managed and worked in European Union, European Parliament, World Bank Group and USAID projects.

Dr. Vinhas de Souza main research areas are in macroeconomics, monetary and international economics. He has a considerable list of publications in different languages. He has a considerable list of publications in several different languages. His personal website is <http://www.vinhasdesouza.eu>.