

BORIS TITOV*PRESIDENTIAL COMMISSIONER FOR ENTREPRENEURS' RIGHTS

Born on December 24, 1960 in Moscow.

1983: completed his studies at the Moscow State Institute of International Relations.

1983–1989: worked at Soyuzneftexport Foreign Trade Company.

1989–1991: department head at the Urals Soviet-Dutch Joint Enterprise.

1991–2012: executive director of Solvalub Group.

1999–2001: chairman of Interkhimprom joint board.

2001–2002: president of Azot Agrochemical Corporation.

2001–2004: president of fertiliser industry's development fund.

2004–2010: CEO of Gas Market Coordinator non-profit partnership.

2006–2012: chairman of the Board of Directors and CEO of Abrau-Dyurso company.

June 2012 – present: Presidential Commissioner for Entrepreneurs' Rights.

Public Activity

2000–2005: member of the Russian Union of Industrialists and Entrepreneurs' administrative office.

2006–2009: member of the Russian Federation Civic Chamber.

2004–2012: chairman of Delovaya Rossiya (Business Russia) All-Russia Public Organisation.

Holder of the Order for Services to the Fatherland, I degree, and the Stolypin Medal, II degree.

Married, with two children.