Businesses

Press-release

Moscow
January 30, 2018

The Association of European Businesses (AEB) is concerned about the 'Kremlin Report'

The Association of European Businesses (AEB) expresses its deepest concerns over the release of so called US Treasury's 'Kremlin Report'. The members of the Association are convinced that the US Treasury's Report increases the uncertainty in the Russian business environment and can also affect the interests of European investors, European companies doing business in, or trading with Russia.

The Association reiterates its calls on the Heads of States and Governments of the EU, the USA and Russia to refrain from actions, which can undermine the prospects of future economic cooperation, and find a common, mutually acceptable, solution of political problems in the spirit of peace and conciliation.

The AEB brings together more than 500 companies from the EU and the European Free Trade Association (EFTA). It is the main representative of the interests of foreign investors in both Russia and the Eurasian Economic Union (EAEU).
