

Egorov Puginsky Afanasiev & Partners is the winner of the "The Law Firm of the Year in Russia, Ukraine and the CIS" category at The Lawyer European Awards, which took place in London on 15 March 2018.

International recognition at this level confirms our Firm's leading position in the CIS region, the competence of our lawyers and the success of the strategy pursued by the Firm.

This is not the first time Egorov Puginsky Afanasiev & Partners took the prestigious accolade of "The Law Firm of the Year in Russia, Ukraine and the CIS". Since the awards started running in 2009, we have been awarded in this category four times.

"2018 is a special year for Egorov Puginsky Afanasiev & Partners, marking our 25th anniversary. Year on year we maintain our reputation as the leading firm in the region, whilst operating in tough market condition to meet the highest standards. It is an honour to be recognized for the hard work, and we are grateful to our clients, partners and peers for their support and contribution to our joint success", said Dimitry Afanasiev, the Firm's Chairman.

Egorov Puginsky Afanasiev & Partners was previously recognized at The Lawyer European Awards in the following categories: "European Law Firm of the Year" (2014), "Law Firm of the Year in Russia, Ukraine and the CIS" (total five times since 2009). We also received awards for Corporate Deal of the Year (2014) and Infrastructure Project of the Year (2015), and Dimitry Afanasiev was awarded Managing Partner of the Year (2015).

The Lawyer European Awards was established by The Lawyer, a leading UK legal publication, to select the best law firms in Europe on the basis of service quality, efficiency and strategic planning, innovative approach, and performance. Every year the largest national and international law firms contend for the title of the leader.
