

PIERRE LEVY

Ambassador of France to Russia

Ambassador Pierre Lévy served as French Ambassador to Poland (2016-2019), previously Director of the European Union Department of the French Ministry of Foreign Affairs and Ambassador to the Czech Republic. He served as Director of the Center for Analysis and Forecasting of the French Ministry of Foreign and European Affairs and Secretary General of the Commission for the Compilation of the White Paper on Foreign and European Policy of France. Commander of the Legion of Honor, Officer of the National Order of Merit.