

VEGAS LEX ON CHAMBERS EUROPE 2016 RANKING

On April 25, 2016, Chambers and Partners published its Chambers Europe 2016, a leading international ranking of the best law firms and lawyers around the world, with VEGAS LEX recognized in six categories and seven of VEGAS LEX experts ranked on the world level.

This year, the VEGAS LEX law firm retained its position on Chambers Europe 2016, as it was again recognized and its expertise was confirmed at the international level.

Corporate/M&A: Mid-Market – Band 1

- Alexander Sitnikov
- Yuriy Bortnikov

PPP – Band 2

- Albert Eganyan

Dispute Resolution – Band 2

- Kirill Trukhanov

Life Sciences – Band 3

- Maria Borzova

Competition/Antitrust – Band 4

- Alexander Sitnikov

Real estate – Band 4

- Igor Chumachenko

Quotations from the Ranking:

"Alexander is known for being a reliable and experienced partner, his outstanding organisation of work processes in the antitrust practice, promptly reaching his goals, his valuable comments and great leadership skills."

"Considered knowledgeable on local legislative issues, Albert Eganyan is an active practitioner focused on transportation infrastructure projects".

"Vegas Lex demonstrates an optimal mixture of international law firm drafting style and deep understanding of local Russian regulations and practice. The lawyers also demonstrate a great ability to work under pressure within short deadlines."

"The lawyers are client-focused, never fail to complete all arrangements and frequently exceed expectations."

"The team achieves impressive results within a short time period."

"Very high quality service."

The full ranking table is available on the official Chambers Europe Awards website at <http://www.chambersandpartners.com/europe/firm/170560/vegas-lex>.

For more information on recognitions and awards won by VEGAS LEX, please visit our recognition and ratings page here.