

VEGAS LEX DISCUSSES RUSSIAN CLIENTS' INTERNATIONAL LITIGATION AT RUSSIAN WEALTH ADVISORS FORUM

On February 2-4, 2016, Zurich hosted Russian Wealth Advisors Forum, one of the biggest events in the management of private capital for wealthy people, attended by Yuriy Bortnikov, VEGAS LEX Partner, Head of International projects group.

On February 4, 2016, VEGAS LEX Partner, Head of International projects group Yuriy Bortnikov spoke at Russian Wealth Advisors Forum in Zurich, which brought together the world's leading experts advising wealthy individuals from Russia and other CIS countries and their families on business issues and structuring of private capital.

Yuriy Bortnikov spoke at the session, International litigation for Russians – theory and practice. Why litigate in 2016? The main issue for discussion was whether Russian clients still prefer to litigate abroad, and if so, why. Experienced experts discussed problems arising in this area and shared examples from their practice.

Speakers at the forum also discussed news of the Russian legislation, in particular the new Russian law on controlled foreign companies, the newly applied anti- offshore measures, international banking for Russian clients in 2016, the reasons for the popularity of trusts among Russian clients, confidentiality of business information and other important issues.

***

For more information on VEGAS LEX's services for international investment projects, please click here.