

VEGAS LEX ON CHAMBERS EUROPE 2017 RANKING

VEGAS LEX has been recognized in seven categories and four of VEGAS LEX experts has been ranked on the Chambers Europe 2017 international ranking of the best law firms and lawyers around the world.

This year, the VEGAS LEX law firm retained its position in its traditionally strong categories, and improved and expanded its recognition on Chambers Europe 2017.

Corporate/M&A: Mid-Market – Band 1

- Alexander Sitnikov

Life Sciences – Band 2

- Maria Borzova

PPP – Band 3

- Albert Eganyan

Dispute Resolution: Domestic – Band 3

Competition/Antitrust – Band 4

- Alexander Sitnikov

Real estate – Recognized practitioner

- Igor Chumachenko

Tax – Recognized practitioner

Quotations from the ranking:

The clients note the team's pragmatism saying that they appreciate "their deep knowledge of legislation; their lateral thinking and creative approach."

"The lawyers are deeply involved in the project and have excellent attention to detail."

Managing partner Alexander Sitnikov is an experienced, versatile lawyer assisting clients with M&A, joint venture and restructuring instructions. "He brings his enthusiasm and expertise as well as his deep knowledge," a client reports.

Maria Borzova receives very positive market feedback. She is a well-respected regulatory specialist and is described by the clients as a "talented and result-oriented" lawyer.

The full ranking table is available on the official Chambers Europe Awards website at <http://www.chambersandpartners.com/europe/firm/170560/vegas-lex>.

For more information on recognitions and awards won by VEGAS LEX, please visit our recognition and ratings page here.