

LEGAL FORENSICS CAN PROTECT YOUR BUSINESS FROM CORPORATE FRAUD, CORRUPTION AND MORE

Participants of a VEGAS LEX workshop have discussed practical aspects of using legal forensics to protect the rights and interests of businesses.

On October 22, 2015, VEGAS LEX organized a hands-on training workshop, Legal forensics as an effective instrument of protecting businesses' interests, with Partner Mikhail Safarov and Head of Krasnodar office Maxim Grigoryev speaking at the event.

The two experts spoke in detail about various instruments of legal forensics, explaining what the key benefits of legal forensics are and outlining the scope of its application. The VEGAS LEX lawyers thoroughly analyzed some specific examples of conducting in-house investigations, methods of effective cooperation with the auditing and other corporate services, and discussed the possibilities of using the results of legal forensics.

The event was attended by heads of legal departments and internal control departments, and chief financial officers from major Russian and foreign companies.
