

Strengthening our presence in Russia with a new management team

accace

PRESS RELEASE

Accace just reached another important milestone on its continuous journey to expand its operations in Moscow, Russia with a new management team of Pavel Zhegalov and Peter Vago who joined Accace Russia as Managing Directors. Both of them possess years-long experience from the professional services industry and have deep understanding of the specifics of the Russian market.

As Pavel says: “We are changing the world for better together with our clients, providing business leaders with outsourcing solutions that help them to successfully navigate business and make strategic decisions.”

Business opportunities and challenges

The great size and potential of the Russian market offers numerous opportunities for international business expansions. However, distinct challenges are tied to its great potential, which are difficult to overcome without a strong local partner who can help guide the businesses through the complexity of the Russian market safely and efficiently.

In the words of Jiří Majer, the CEO of Accace: “We follow our clients and currently, their majority is asking us for seamless international solutions across the whole EMEA region, where Russia is one of the key countries. I am happy that we can rely on our team in Moscow for all future clients’ projects.”

Our experienced staff in Russia covers full-range accounting, HR, payroll, tax compliance and corporate secretarial services. Together with Accace and our global community, Accace Circle, we help companies seize countless opportunities that Russia offers.
