BCLP RUSSIA TAKES TOP POSITIONS IN THE CHAMBERS EUROPE 2021 RATING

On 18 March 2021, Chambers Europe, a pre-eminent international legal rating, released its 2021 ranking according to which Bryan Cave Leighton Paisner Russia is once again recognised as a top-ranked law firm in the following key areas: Real Estate & Construction (Band 1), Competition/Antitrust (Band 1), Corporate/M&A (Band 3), Dispute Resolution (Band 4), Intellectual Property (Band 3), Tax (Band 3), Employment (Band 2), TMT (Band 3), Banking and Finance (Band 4), Restructuring/Insolvency (Band 4), Healthcare and Pharmaceuticals (Band 4).

The rating is based on appraisals and references by the firm's clients and peers, as well as the scale and complexity of its projects over the last year.

Here are some appraisals of the firm and individual practices quoted in the rating :

Real Estate (Band 1):

"The team is always ready to respond very quickly to whatever problem we may be facing", a client enthuses.

Competition/Antitrust (Band 1):

"We like how they work", a client says, explaining: "We liked their preparation skills and their presentation in court."

Employment (Band 2):

"A source is full of praise for the team's client-oriented and communicative approach, noting: "Engagement is very important for us and they treated the case like a personal matter, which really helped our internal lawyers to trust in their approach."

Tax (Band 3):

"They are very good, they helped us on a very difficult project", a client reports, while another praises the team's "good technical skills and strategic analysis."

"They're always able to find solutions and they give very accurate advice."

TMT (Band 3):

"Clients praise the team for a pro-business approach, one saying: "They are client-oriented and provide practical solutions."

Corporate/M&A (Band 3):
