

VEGAS LEX ANNOUNCES A SERIES OF LECTURES ON LEGAL ASPECTS OF ENERGY DISTRIBUTION AT MOSCOW STATE UNIVERSITY

On October 4, 2017, Head of VEGAS LEX Energy practice Evgeniy Rodin opened a series of lectures at Masters' School MSU Law.

On October 4, 2017, Head of VEGAS LEX Energy practice Evgeniy Rodin will deliver a course of lectures on “Legal and Economic Aspects of Electricity Production and Distribution in the Russian Federation” as part of the Masters' School project at the Faculty of Law of Moscow State University*.

The course will give the participants an idea of the legal framework for the electricity markets' operation, the rules of conduct and principles of government regulation of those markets; they will learn to apply their knowledge of electricity markets at legal departments and consultancies.

They will also study the history of Russian electricity markets, the principles of their operation and the current situation; they will learn the basic rules of drafting energy supply contracts and analyze legal acts for future professional work in the energy sector.

The lectures begin at 18-00 on Mondays and Wednesdays.

For registration, please click this link.

Masters' School MSU Law is a project of the Faculty of Law of Moscow State University, which started in 2015. Its goal is to give new lawyers an opportunity to apply their knowledge to solving real practical problems even during training. The “School of Masters” offers lectures by leading legal practitioners from law firms and legal departments of major Russian and foreign companies. The curriculum covers several relevant topics, each including a basic workshop, practical analysis of cases and the preparation of legal documents. The lectures are free and attendance is flexible. <http://www.law.msu.ru/node/37757>

VEGAS LEX relies on its knowledge and experience in cooperation with educational institutions, contributing to building talent pools of attorneys and improving legal culture of the country. <https://www.vegaslex.ru/en/about/cooperation/>.

For more information on the firm's services to the energy sector, please go here.