

EPAM Law Advises on the Acquisition of a Production Facility for Khlebprom

EPAM Law provided comprehensive legal support in connection with the acquisition of a production facility in the Moscow Region for Khlebprom, a leading Russian confectionery manufacturer.

The firm's multidisciplinary team advised on negotiations, prepared the full suite of transaction documentation, and supported the signing and successful completion of the deal.

At various stages of the project, lawyers from the firm's Real Estate and Construction, Corporate, Energy and IP/TMT, Environmental and Technical Regulation, and Litigation and Arbitration practices were involved under the leadership of partners Ekaterina Verle and Lev Vasiliev. The core team included counsel Yervand Nalbadyan and Sergey Ustalov, as well as senior associates Anastasia Karepova, Maksim Tabolo, Anna Rodygina, Anton Kleshchenko, Anastasia Duvanova and Anastasia Boytsova.
